

News Release

Caroline Center
900 Somerset Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21202
Contact: Nancy Sherman
Director of Communications & Marketing
nsherman@caroline-center.org
410.563.1303 x25

Caroline Center Hosts the School Sisters of Notre Dame International Shalom Network Delegation

The SSND delegation also will visit the United Nations and Washington, DC, to engage in important conversations about how to effectively address issues of social justice, peace, the integrity of creation, and the empowerment of girls and women in the 21st century

- WHEN: Monday, April 22, 2013
10 – 11:30 a.m.
- WHERE: Caroline Center/900 Somerset Street/Baltimore, Maryland 21202
- WHO: SSND International Shalom Network Coordinator
Sr. Roxanne Shares of Rome, Italy, will visit Caroline Center with delegation leaders from the five branches of the network representing Africa, Asia and Oceania, Europe, Latin America, and the U. S.
- WHAT: Delegates from the 9TH International Shalom Network Annual Meeting of the School Sisters of Notre Dame will meet with Caroline Center trainees; tour the center; and hear about how Caroline Center prepares women for careers with the potential for advancement
- OPPORTUNITIES: Delegation, staff, and trainee interviews. Photo opportunities in skills labs, classrooms, and mock pharmacy in the center's circa 1908 building in east Baltimore

Caroline Center is a nonprofit workforce development program and sponsored work of the School Sisters of Notre Dame providing tuition-free education and skills training leading to certification as a nursing assistant, geriatric nursing assistant, or pharmacy technician for underserved women in Baltimore City. A Caroline Center education is a highly individualized, comprehensive, and holistic approach that is recognized nationally for the effectiveness of its program and the successes of its alumnae. Recently, Caroline Center was honored by the Baltimore City Chamber of Commerce with the "Small Nonprofit Innovator Award."

End